JUDGMENT

The learned Government Pleader submits that on the basis of Ext.P1 complaint lodged by the petitioner before the 4th respondent, a crime has now been registered, though belatedly as crime No.567/07 of Kochi Kasba Police Station on 22.8.07. Proper and efficient investigation shall be conducted assures the learned Government Pleader .

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that some of the entries made in the FIR to place the responsibility for the delay in registration of the crime at the doors of the petitioner is unjustified. Be that as it may, it is not necessary for me to embark on any detailed discussion on that criticism. I am satisfied that no further directions need be made now in this matter.

3. In the result this writ petition is dismissed as unnecessary now. But I make it clear that the dismissal of this writ petition will not in any way fetter the right of the petitioner to approach this Court again at a later stage, if a proper investigation is not conducted.
